The Graphic Novel Category:

The Graphic Novel prize will consist of $300.00 and a plaque. All comics that are longer than 56 pages will be included in the Graphic Novel category. In this category if an anthology wins the editor/publisher will win the prize not each of the individual contributors. If you are a contributor to an anthology and you want your individual story considered please enter it under the mini-comic/ short story category.

The General Category:

The General prize will consist of $300.00 and a plaque. All comics that do not fit into the mini-comics/short story or Graphic Novel categories qualify for the general category. In the General category if an anthology wins the editor/publisher will win the prize not each of the individual contributors. If you are a contributor to an anthology and you want your individual story considered please enter it under the mini-comic/ short story category.

The Mini-comics/short story Category:

The Mini-comics/short story prize will consist of $100.00 and a plaque. Only mini-comics 5-1/2"X8-1/2" maximum size and a maximum of 28 interior pages or a short story in an anthology up to a 16 page story can be submitted for this category.

Junior Category:

Other info:

Please fill out the form for each entry you wish to submit.

Please check the appropriate box for the category you would like to be considered for.

One copy of an anthology can be submitted with a general entry form and multiple individual short story entry forms.

Check if you do not want your address published. Phone numbers and e-mail addresses will not be published.

Entries should have been published between April 27, 2019 and July 11, 2020 and post marked by July 12, 2020.

Judging will be done similar to other years. Bob Corby will select the finalists and two judges and the popular vote will determine the winner. The judges will pick their 1st, 2nd and 3rd picks. Each of the 2020 exhibitors can vote for their favorite (No voting for yourself). Points will be awarded 5 for 1st, 3 for 2nd and 1 for 3rd. The book with the most points wins..

We hope to get the voting done by September.

We will determine the final category your book fits into if they do not conform to the guide lines above.
